

2009 Nationals in Johnson City Tennessee

Allyn and Jim's campsite

A German restaurant
the group ate at while in Johnson City

More restaurant pictures

Enjoying German beer and appetizers

Sharon in the shade

Billy and Jim also enjoying the shade

Tom two-fisting it

Fred and an old friend he hadn't seen in years

Waiting on our table for breakfast

And waiting

... and waiting

Yup

Main street nationals

Over-looking the main camping areas

Another look at the camping and parking lots

We met people from all over

Some of the free entertainment

Part of our group waiting to see if we won anything from the raffles

More hardy souls willing to stand while we hope for prizes

Just a morning shot of camping
