5. Guidelines for a Successful Rockin’ for Relief benefit

The key to the success of Rockin’ for Relief depends not only on how much money we raise, but the quality of all the vendors. Reasonable prices are necessary for a successful event.

6. Procedures and Rules

For artists all art work must be original, handcrafted work. One of a kind work is preferred and encouraged, no commercial reproductions, or embellished commercial products are allowed. If you produce work in editions, you must disclose edition numbers to the fair audience and include in your slide descriptions, all work must be for sale. Vendors must be identified by the name used at their place of business. Alcoholic beverages are not to be consumed at Rockin’ for Relief. Failure to comply will result in closing of the table and fees will not be refunded. Money will not be refunded if you fail to comply! Make it nice!

7. Table Setup

6ft and 8ft tables with skirts are available. A list of electrical equipment must be submitted for approval with registration. All electrical hook-up need(s) arranged in advance. Delivery of all items will begin at 7:00am on April 29.

NO electric over 220volts

The appearance of the table and staff is a direct reflection on your business as well as EJ Thomas. Tables must be clothed. You must cover you table with a tablecloth.

Vendors are required to keep their booth clean and neat and staff in clean clothing. Vendors are encouraged to be creative with table decorations within the perimeter of the table.

Money will not be refunded if you fail to comply!

Tables will be inspected before and after the event to assess any damage to the EJ Thomas property and any costs incurred will be passed on to the responsible vendor.

The tables must be staffed at all times from open to close.

8. Liability and Insurance

Neither The University of Akron and EJ Thomas nor their respective members, representatives, contractors, corporate sponsors, successors and assignees will be responsible for any injury, loss or damage that may occur to the vendors or the vendor’s employees, agents, contractors, respective, or property from any cause whatsoever.
